

StockMill

Terms & Conditions

by Errormatic Technologies Private Limited

For: The StockMill Main Application

Effective Date: 19 August 2026

Governing Law: India

1. Acceptance

These Terms & Conditions ("Terms") govern access to and use of StockMill, a mobile inventory management application operated by Errormatic Technologies Pvt Ltd. By accessing or using StockMill, you agree to be bound by these Terms.

If you do not agree to these Terms, you should not use the App.

2. The StockMill Service

StockMill provides inventory and operational management tools for agricultural grain mills and related businesses, including stock IN/OUT entries, mill and godown management, material configuration, party management, reports, exports, notifications, and related account functionality.

StockMill is a software service. It does not itself verify the accuracy, ownership, legality, quantity, quality, or commercial validity of information entered by users.

3. Eligibility and Business Use

StockMill is intended for business and organizational use. Users must have authority to use StockMill on behalf of their organization or mill and must provide information that is accurate to the best of their knowledge.

4. Accounts and Credentials

- Users are responsible for keeping their login credentials confidential.
- Users must not share credentials in a manner that creates unauthorized access.
- Users must promptly notify the organization or StockMill support if they believe an account has been compromised.
- Account access may be restricted, suspended, or terminated where necessary for security, misuse, non-payment, violation of these Terms, or other legitimate operational reasons.

5. User Content and Business Data

Users and their organizations remain responsible for the information they enter into StockMill, including inventory records, party information, addresses, contact details, vehicle numbers, photographs, remarks, and reports.

You represent that you have the necessary rights and authority to enter, upload, store, and process such information through StockMill.

6. Accuracy of Records

StockMill provides software tools for recording and reporting information. Users are responsible for verifying entries, quantities, units, dates, parties, vehicle numbers, and other operational records before relying on them for business decisions.

7. Photos and Device Permissions

Where the App provides camera or photo-upload functionality, users authorize the App to access the relevant device feature after the applicable permission is granted. Users are responsible for ensuring that photographs uploaded to StockMill do not unlawfully contain information belonging to third parties.

8. Offline Operation and Synchronization

StockMill may allow certain functions to operate offline. Offline entries and files may remain on the device until connectivity is restored and synchronization occurs. Users should not assume that information entered offline has been synchronized until the App indicates that synchronization has occurred.

9. Subscription and Fees

StockMill may be offered under paid subscription plans established by Errormatic Technologies Pvt Ltd. Applicable pricing, taxes, billing terms, subscription periods, expiry dates, grace periods, and activation conditions may be communicated to the subscribing organization.

Where a subscription expires, access may be restricted in accordance with the applicable subscription terms. Payment does not automatically create a right to any particular future feature unless expressly agreed.

10. Intellectual Property

StockMill, including its software, branding, interface, documentation, logos, designs, and underlying technology, is owned by or licensed to Errormatic Technologies Pvt Ltd and is protected by applicable intellectual-property laws.

Except as expressly permitted, users may not copy, modify, distribute, reverse engineer, decompile, resell, or create derivative works from the App or its proprietary components.

11. Prohibited Use

- Using StockMill for unlawful purposes or to violate the rights of another person or organization.
- Attempting to gain unauthorized access to another mill, user account, or StockMill infrastructure.
- Interfering with the security, availability, or operation of the service.
- Uploading malicious code or content intended to compromise the service or other users.

- Misrepresenting identity or authority when using an account.

12. Service Availability

We aim to provide reliable service but do not guarantee uninterrupted or error-free availability. Service may be affected by maintenance, network failures, cloud-provider incidents, device limitations, telecommunications issues, force majeure events, or other circumstances outside our reasonable control.

13. Third-Party Services

StockMill may depend on third-party infrastructure and services, including authentication, cloud storage, database, messaging, telecommunications, operating-system, and app-store services. Such third-party services may be governed by their own terms and policies.

14. Disclaimer

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, StockMill is provided on an “as available” basis. We do not warrant that the service will always be uninterrupted, completely error-free, or suitable for every particular business process.

15. Limitation of Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, Errormatic Technologies Pvt Ltd will not be liable for indirect, incidental, special, consequential, or punitive losses arising from use of StockMill. Nothing in these Terms excludes liability that cannot lawfully be excluded or limited.

16. Suspension and Termination

We may suspend or terminate access where reasonably necessary to protect the service, users, security, legal compliance, or contractual interests. Organizations may also discontinue their use subject to applicable subscription arrangements.

17. Privacy

StockMill's collection and handling of personal and business information are described in the StockMill Privacy Policy. Use of the App is also subject to that Privacy Policy.

18. Changes to these Terms

We may update these Terms from time to time. Updated Terms will be made available through appropriate StockMill channels. Continued use after an effective update constitutes acceptance of the updated Terms to the extent permitted by applicable law.

19. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

These Terms shall be governed by the laws of India, subject to applicable mandatory legal protections. Any dispute shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the courts having lawful jurisdiction over the relevant dispute and the parties.

21. Google Play Compliance

StockMill is intended to comply with applicable Google Play requirements relevant to its functionality, user data practices, permissions, account management, privacy disclosures, and data deletion. Users acknowledge that continued access to the App may depend on compliance with applicable platform requirements.

22. Account and Data Deletion

Where an account is eligible for deletion, users may initiate deletion through the mechanisms provided by StockMill. Upon a valid request, associated user data will be deleted subject to lawful retention requirements described in the Privacy Policy.

23. Privacy Policy

The StockMill Privacy Policy forms part of the framework governing use of the App and describes the collection, use, storage, sharing, security, retention, and deletion of user data.
